Everyone's Talking About What Jewel's Done To Meat Prices!

If you've been hearing your neighbors talking about meat prices lately, there's a very good reason. Jewel's given everyone cause to consider the large role meat costs play in a weekly food budget.

Since Jewel introduced week-long "Saturday meat prices" in the Butcher Shop a few weeks ago, thousands of homemakers have come to appreciate this exciting new concept in pricing. They've learned that Jewel now offers them savings on all varieties of meat — on a wide selection of cuts — on meats they serve often to the ones they enjoy only on rare occasions. And they enjoy these new lower prices any shopping day of the week.

It's the best Jewel news since "Miracle Prices."
So you owe it to yourself to find out what all the talk is about. One shopping trip is worth a thousand words.

This aerial view looking westward over Winston Park in Palatine illustrates the careful planning found in many of the North West Suburban Communities.

Palatine has grown from 6460 population in 1955 to its present estimated 23,000 happy subarbanities. One of the contributing factors to this tremendons growth is the desire to live in a comitry atmosphere yet be situated close to expressway, trains and O'Hare.
